

Please don't destroy the freedom to hear what folks want to hear by allowing for one huge company to own and control everything - isn't it bad enough that most country radio is patterned after bad 70's rock music and that is shoved down our throats? Now you want to make it so that small independent stations and artists have no chance. Please don't do that to the public and to the music industry - it is wrong.